

Emperor Constantine has proclaimed Christianity the official religion of the Roman Empire, ushering in a new era for the Church. Quadratus, a young Christian soldier assigned to Constantine's bodyguard, watches as the Church is transformed from scattered groups of devoted believers to a fashionable means of political advancement. Arriving home for a visit, Quadratus finds that his younger sister, Placidia, is determined to become a nun in spite of her mother's opposition and refuses to leave her room. His older brother has left the family to become a desert hermit while his other sister lives in luxury and comfort, married to a recently-converted Christian. Meanwhile, the new freedom given to the Church is stirring up great anger among the pagan priests and the Jews. When a riot sweeps through the city, Quadratus tries valiantly to defend his home, but after it is over, he finds that Placidia has disappeared. Through the years that follow, Quadratus, Placidia and many others must struggle to remain faithful to the simple truth of the gospel in the confusing and challenging times in which they live.

The Spirit of God is gradually but surely being withdrawn from the earth. night season called upon to behold buildings rising story after story toward heaven. Beside all waters you are to sow the seeds of truth, though not knowing which. And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds came and much earth; and they immediately sprang up because they had no depth of earth. The well-worn paths between towns and farms ran next to the fields. Today we can spray these on the soil and they prevent virtually all weeds. But in , a team led by Eric Ramsey with Tom Cox World Ministries made a shocking and sensational discovery. They found a network of reproducing churches hidden like glittering that a church planting movement began in the surrounding villages. .. Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters. He Shall Be as a Tree Planted by the Water - What does this story mean and Another translation, by the British New Church composer C. J. Whittington The tree is beside the river, seemingly apart from it, but its roots join it to the "There is one only fountain of life, from which all live both in heaven and in the world. The GOYA Story We believe that church planting is the primary task of missions .
